THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1901.

ONE of the nicest, best arranged and neatest gotten up products of a country printing office has just come to our desk from the office of the Cleveland, Tennessee, Journal, being its Illustrated Trade Edition. We congratulate Ed tor Stern upon his achievement, and hope that besides being a credit to his ability it has also caused the shekles to flow into his pocket book in a long, unbroken golden stream.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed con-dition of the mucous linear of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets in-flamed you have a rumpling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is theresult, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nihe cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous sur-
